

Bedford

Bedford tells the short story of Maala, a young African girl from the fictional rural town of Kware. She is mesmerized by Bedford (or Badfod as she calls it), the foreign town where her father promises to take her to get an education and make something of herself rather than shine shoes or sell maize in Kware. However, the Bedford idea is much to her grandaunts dismay. Her grandaunt is distrustful of Maalas fathers claims about Bedford and wants to protect Maala from the dangers of life outside Kware. Nevertheless, Maala and her father set off for the big city and her dreams and his promises of Bedford.
