

Astas Book: Psychological Thriller

Astas Book is a classic double-detective story by crime master Barbara Vine. For a good, absorbing, well-told story, you could hardly better the unveiling of Asta's secret. Sunday Times. It is 1905. Asta and her husband Rasmus have come to East London from Denmark with their two little boys. With Rasmus constantly away on business, Asta keeps loneliness and isolation at bay by writing a diary. These diaries, published over seventy years later, reveal themselves to be more than a mere journal. For they seem to hold the key to an unsolved murder and to the mystery of a missing child. It falls to Asta's granddaughter Ann to unearth the buried secrets of nearly a century before. A dazzling domestic thriller. Guardian. Obsessively readable. Sunday Telegraph. Engrossing . . . a mixture of biography, true crime and romance people with vivid minor players and red herrings. Independent on Sunday. Absolutely enthralling ... the best yet from the Vine/Rendell bureau. Essential reading. Literary Review. Simply put, Vine is one of the greatest writers ever. Scott Turow. Astas Book is a modern crime masterpiece and will be enjoyed by readers of P.D. James, Ian Rankin and Scott Turow. Barbara Vine is the pen-name of Ruth Rendell. She has written fifteen novels using this pseudonym, including A Fatal Inversion and King Solomon's Carpet which both won the Crime Writers Association Gold Dagger Award. Her other books include: A Dark Adapted Eye; The House of Stairs; Gallowglass; Astas Book; No Night Is Too Long; In the Time of His Prosperity; The Brimstone Wedding; The Chimney Sweepers Boy; Grasshopper; The Blood Doctor; The Minotaur; The Birthday Present and The Child's Child.
