

The Gold Slaves

The people of Space believe they live in a hollow pocket in an otherwise solid universe. They are tunneling through this solid universe following a golden path that will lead them to the fabled Nirvana - a world of infinite space and light. When they put their gold in the Gods Chamber as an offering to the gods, they are rewarded with food. There are Spinners that burrow through the universe until they strike space, then recede into their burrows and eat the smoke produced by the people and emit oxygen. Obviously we, the people on the surface, who are in the know realize that these are simply brainwashed miners unknowingly working for a mining company. They are Slaves - Gold Slaves. Then two of the miners accidentally find a way to the surface and to freedom from their underground trap. But who is really trapped? The Gold Slaves trap is obvious, its easy to see material barriers, but its impossible for the people on the surface to see how they are trapped by the barriers of their irrational philosophies and ideas. Thus Gold Slaves have something to offer more valuable than gold.
